

Calling all Shovels to Chinook Bend!

Help restore spawning habitat on the Snoqualmie River.
Two planting events to choose from.

Don't miss these fun opportunities to join other volunteers planting native trees and shrubs along the Snoqualmie River. These sites are next to prime spawning grounds for chum, pink and chinook salmon. Why vegetate, when you can re-vegetate!

February 22, 2003

Planting on the Snoqualmie River

When: 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM, the shuttle will transport volunteers to the site until 10:30 AM

Planting at Chinook Bend

When: 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM

How to get there: From SR 520 eastbound: Take the Fall City/SR 202 (Redmond-Fall City Road) to NE Ames Lake Rd and turn left. Ames Lake Road will become Ames Lake-Carnation RD which will become NE

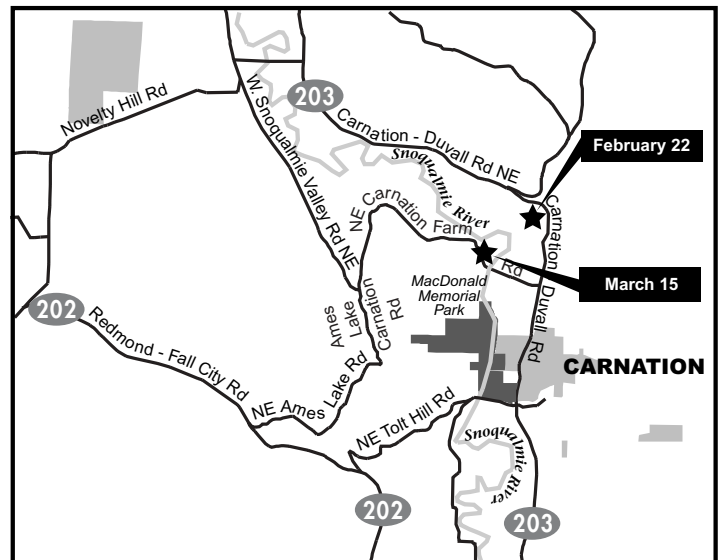

Carnation Farm Rd. After 5.6 miles, you will see the Nestlé Regional Training Center on your right. Continue 1.5 miles before turning left just before the bridge at the volunteer event signs. Follow the signs to the parking area.

From SR 203: Take NE Carnation Farm Rd (just north of downtown Carnation), go .9 miles until you reach the volunteer event signs, just after crossing the bridge over the Snoqualmie River. Follow the signs to the parking area.

What to Bring: Bring a shovel and gloves if you have them. Light refreshments will be provided. You may want to bring a backpack with lunch and a water bottle because you may be up to .5 mile away from your vehicle.

What to Wear: Wear old "work clothes" and rubber boots or heavy shoes. Dress for the weather; we will plant rain or shine!

Volunteers under 16 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.
